

IMA Policy for Exhibition Inquiries from Outside Parties

For unsolicited exhibition inquiries by/for living artists:

- All inquiries must be made in writing to the attention of the Department of Contemporary Art (with return of material only with enclosed prepaid return envelope).
- No drop-in meetings
- The artist's work must be consistent with the IMA's exhibition and collection goals in order to be considered.
- The IMA's exhibition schedule is booked well in advance.

For all other unsolicited exhibition inquiries:

- All inquiries must be made in writing to the attention of the Director of Exhibitions and Publications (with return of material only with enclosed prepaid return envelope).
- No drop-in meetings
- The IMA's exhibition schedule is booked well in advance.
